Dear Kenneth:

I deeply appreciate your prompt reply to my recent letter. I was happy to learn that the brethren would like for me to come and be with you even though you are not going to be away on any of the Sundays I will be in Texas. I do hope that this meets with your complete approval for I had made the request only in view of the possibility that you would be away and the congregation would need a supply preacher.

Unfortunately, I am scheduled to preach at Highland in Abilene on July 21 and 28. I received the invitation from them after I wrote you stating the dates that I would be free. If at all possible, I would appreciate the brethren allowing me to come on any one of the first three Sundays in August, 4, 11, 18. If this can be done, I would appreciate hearing from you promptly; however, I will understand completely if July 28 is the only day suitable to all of you. If, however, another date will be just as proper, I will look forward to being with you on the date you suggest.

Faternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
